Cycling adventures throughout Europe with Euro-Bike & Walking Tours

There are faster ways to get around Europe, but if you're looking for the best way to see the countryside, it surely by bicycle. You'll find drivers are more courteous, locals are more welcoming, and the routes are scenic and well maintained.

Travelers considering a cycling trip in Europe need not plan their trip by themselves. Several companies, such as Euro-Bike & Walking Tours, offer a variety of fully escorted trips throughout the continent and Britain. Euro-Bike & Walking tours has been leading active vacations in Europe since 1974, and is one of the oldest and most popular active vacation outfitters. Trips include out of the way regions like Spain, Ireland, Denmark & Belgium.

On the Viva Rioja trip, travelers venture to northern Spain, visiting famous wine towns like Olite and Pamplona in the Navarra region, and Calahorra in the Rioja region, where fortified medieval castles and colorful cloisters rise above the vineyard clad landscape. The trip is 7 days, and runs from April to October. The price is $2195 per person.

On the 8-day Danish Isles trip, travelers cycle on Denmark's exclusive Aero, Funen, Sealand, and Tasinge Islands, famous for their chic resorts, magical vistas, and historic harbor towns. This is the land of Hamlet, the summer playground of Danish royalty. Families will enjoy exploring all the area's castles. This trip runs June - August, the price is $2695 per person.

Another off-the-beaten-path tour visits the elegant towns of Flanders, where the continental experience can still be savored. Treasures of Flanders follows the North Sea coast from Middelburg (Holland), to medieval Bruges (Belgium), then on to Gent.

In addition to these tours, Euro-Bike has over 100 departures to premier destinations, like France, Italy, Germany, Holland, Switzerland, and Britain. Trips range in length from 6 days to two weeks. Each is fully supported, led by the company's own English-speaking guides, and featuring deluxe accommodations and gourmet meals.
